

Revised and Effective as of: August 8, 2011

This Acceptable Use Policy ("Policy") outlines unacceptable use of ICC Global Hosting services which interact with, or access, the Internet (the "Services"). This Policy is in addition to any other terms and conditions under which ICC Global Hosting provides the Services to you.

ICC Global Hosting may make reasonable modifications to this Policy from time to time by posting a new version of this document on the ICC Global Hosting Web site at "<http://www.iccglobalhosting.com/documents/ICCAUP.pdf>" (or any successor URL(s)). Revisions are effective immediately upon posting. Accordingly, we recommend that you visit the ICC Global Hosting Web site regularly to ensure that your activities conform to the most recent version.

Questions about this Policy (e.g., whether any contemplated use is permitted) and reports of violations of this Policy should be directed to info@iccgh.com.

The examples listed in this Policy are not exhaustive. Prohibited uses and activities include, without limitation, any use of the Services in a manner that, in ICC Global Hosting's reasonable judgment, involves, facilitates, or attempts any of the following:

1. violating any law of, or committing conduct that is tortious or unlawful in, any applicable jurisdiction;
2. gambling activities;
3. displaying, performing, sending, receiving or storing any content that is obscene, pornographic, lewd, lascivious, or excessively violent, regardless of whether the material or its dissemination is unlawful;
4. advocating or encouraging violence against any government, organization, group, individual or property, or providing instruction, information, or assistance in causing or carrying out such violence, regardless of whether such activity is unlawful;
5. accessing, sending, receiving, displaying, performing, disclosing, storing, or executing any content
 - a. a) in violation of any copyright, right of publicity, patent, trademark, service mark, trade name, trade secret or other intellectual property right,
 - b. b) in violation of any applicable agreement, or
 - c. c) without authorization;
6. obtaining unauthorized access to any system, network, service, or account; including any attempt to probe, scan or test the vulnerability of a system or network or to breach security or authentication measures without express authorization of the owner of the system or network;
7. interfering with service to any user, site, account, system, or network by use of any program, script, command, or otherwise;

8. any attempt to probe, scan, penetrate or test the vulnerability of a ICC Global Hosting system or network, or to breach ICC Global Hosting's security or authentication measures, whether by passive or intrusive techniques, without ICC Global Hosting's express written consent;
9. introducing or activating any viruses, worms, harmful code and/or Trojan horses;
10. sending or posting unsolicited messages or e-mail, whether commercial or not, a) to any recipients who have requested that messages not be sent to them, or b) to a large number of recipients, including users, newsgroups, or bulletin boards, at one time;
11. evading spam filters, or sending or posting a message or e-mail with deceptive, absent, or forged header or sender identification information;
12. collecting or using email addresses, screen names or other identifiers without the consent of the person identified (including, without limitation, phishing, Internet scamming, password robbery, spidering, and harvesting);
13. propagating chain letters or pyramid schemes, whether or not the recipient wishes to receive such mailings;
14. any conduct that is likely to result in retaliation against the ICC Global Hosting network or website, or ICC Global Hosting's employees, officers or other agents, including engaging in behavior that results in any server being the target of a denial of service attack (DoS) holding ICC Global Hosting, its affiliates, officers, or employees up to public scorn or ridicule.
